

Site 1256, Figure F259. Abundance of secondary mineral veins with depth in the sheeted dike complex and plutonic section of Hole 1256D. Numbers of veins are normalized to amount of recovered material per core (veins per meter).

