

Door 1

Steel Case Station

NATURAL GAMMA RADIATION

Measurements are made by means of the detector and not directly from the source.

Source can be moved along the length of the detector and detector can be moved along the length of the source.

Special safety measures are used for protection between source and detector.

